

Curriculum Vita Monther Jamhawi

Academic Degrees:

1. Bachelor's Degree in Architecture -Yarmouk University - 1985.
2. Master Degree in Applied sciences in Archaeology – Institute of Archaeology and Anthropology at Yarmouk University -1993.
3. PhD Degree in Cultural Resources Management From Oxford School of Architecture at Oxford Brookes University – England, 2002.

Training Programs:

- An International Architectural Conservation Course of UNESCO - ICCROM / Rome, 5 months -1994
- A short training course in Site Management of Archaeological Sites, one week, Damascus, July 1997.
- A short training course in Preservation the The Islamic monuments, two weeks, Marrakech - Morocco, June 1998.
- An advanced course in “ Conservation and Management of Archaeological Sites” , organized by Unesco and held in Jordan & Italy, 4 months -2000

Experience:

Recently	Assisstant Professor / Queen Rania Institute of Tourism and Cultural Heritage at the Hashemite University / Head of Cultural Resources Management Department.
May 2000 - Jan 2001	Director of Jerash Distrect's Antiquities office / Ministry of Tourism and Antiquities of Jordan
Aug. 1990 - May 2000	Architect / Conservator at the Ministry of Tourism and Antiquities of Jordan working in the field of Conservation.
July 1994 – Jan.,2000	Project manager of Irbid Archaeological Museum Restoration Project (Dar es-Saraya) (Dep. of Antiquities (DoA).
Nov. 1993 - July 1994	Supervisor of the restoration projects of the historical monuments of Jerash (DoA).
July 1992 - Nov. 1993	Supervisor of the restoration project of the Roman western theatre at Umm-Qais site (DoA).
Aug. 1990 - July 1992	Supervisor of the restoration projects of the Roman Theater and Odeum in Amman (DoA).
Oct. 1985 - Aug. 1990	Supervisor of many new private construction projects. Designer of many new private projects in Irbid and Amman.

Workshops and Committees, and Academic Activities:

- “Petra Stone Presrvation”, four days workshop organized by GTZ and Ministry of Tourism, and held at Amra Hotel, November, 1992.
- “The old village of Umm-Qais and its local community”, one-day workshop, organized by the Ministry of Tourism, and held at Amon Hotel, April, 1999.
- Committee member of al-Mashhad Reviving Project at Mo'ta-Karak, 1999.
- “Petra Park Management Plan, Policy and Planning”, one-day workshop, organized by the Ministry of Tourisme and held at the Department of Antiquities, November, 2000.

- Assessment committee representative member for Jerash Tourism Development Project II, Scott willson consulting company, 2000.
- Consultation committee member of the promotion project of Umm er-Rassas – Madaba, 2000.
- “Umm-Qais old village, assessment and recommendations”, one-day workshop, organized by the school of architecture of Jordan University of Science and Technology JUST, Jan. 2001.
- Privatization of Archaeological Sites in Jordan, 4 workshops, 2003-2004.
- Organizing committee member for the Second International Conference “Science and Technology in Archaeology and Conservation”, organized by the Hashemite University with sponsorship of UNESCO, and Held in Jordan during the period 7-11 December, 2003.
- Coordinator of the Third International Conference “Science and Technology in Archaeology and Conservation” organized by the Hashemite University with sponsorship of UNESCO, and Held in Jordan during the period 7-11 December, 2003.
- Senior part-time lecturer in the Jordan Applied University of Hospitality and Tourism, teaching CRM courses. 2004 .
- Participation in a Workshop entitled “CLUSTERS, DISTRICTS, AND NETWORKS OF TANGIBLE, INTANGIBLE AND MATERIAL CULTURAL HERITAGE IN THE NON-EU MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES” held in Turin during the period 19-20 November, 2004.
- Senior lecturer in the Meosology Workshop, organized by the Tourism Development Project Management Unit (The Japanese Project), 5th December, 2004
- Cognate examiner of a master thesis in Architecture, Jordan University of Science and Technology, May, 2005.

Consultation for National and International Projects:

- Consultation committee member in the Bergish Cave Tourism Development Project (National). Joint project with the department of Architecture at Jordan University. June-November, 2004.
- Consultation committee member in a work package of an international Euro-Med project “ERATO”
- Consultation committee member in a work package of an international Euro-Med project PRODOMEA
- Consultation committee member in a work sub-package of a national project the Development of the historic area of Irbid city