

MUSTAFA AL-NADDAF

- 1990 B.Sc. in Geology, Yarmouk University.
1993 M Sc in Geology, Yarmouk University.
2002 Ph.D. in Geology, Free University of Berlin.

Current professional activity:

Full-time lecturer at the Department of Conservation and Management of Cultural Heritage, Faculty of Archaeology and Anthropology, Yarmouk University.

Related professional experience:

1998-2002: Researcher in the field of stone conservation at Rathgen-Research Lab, State Museums of Berlin.

1995-1998: Full-time lab technician at the department of archaeology, Yarmouk University, and researcher in Petra Stone Conservation Project with the German Technical Cooperation Agency, GTZ.

1993-1995: Part-time research assistant at the department of archaeology, Yarmouk University.

1990-1993: Part-time teaching assistant at the department of geology, Yarmouk University.

1990-1993: Teaching and supervising different practical courses at the department of geology, Yarmouk University.

1993-1998: Teaching and supervising different practical courses in the field of applying scientific techniques in archaeology at the department of geology, Yarmouk University.

2002- Full-time lecturer at the Department of Conservation and Management of Cultural Heritage, Faculty of Archaeology and Anthropology, Yarmouk University.

Publications:

2002: Weathering Mechanism: Technical Investigation in Relation to the Conservation of the Sandstone Monuments in Petra, Jordan. Berlin: Mensch & Buch Verlag.

Contact:

Mustafa Al-Naddaf

Department of Conservation and Management of Cultural Heritage, Faculty of Archaeology and Anthropology, Yarmouk University, Irbid, Jordan.