

Eleni Petropoulou

Postgraduate degree in the Department of History and Archaeology (Cyprus University, Cyprus, 1994)

Architecture degree (National Metsovion Technical University, Athens, Greece, 1989)

Current professional activity:

Leader of the Nicosia Centre expert team on the Nicosia Urban Development Plan, since 2003

Related professional experience:

Architect at the Documentation Service of the Nicosia Urban Development Plan (2001-2003)

Freelance architect working with other practices: Europa Nostra Prize for the conservation of the Monastery of Panayia tou Sindi in Paphos (1993-1997), the conservation of the church and medieval bridge in Tochni (1996, 1999-2000), Monastery of Kykkos (1996-1997) and the reuse of a neoclassic building as Pera Chorion Nisou town hall (2000-2003).

Studies and documentation for: Hala Sultan Tekke, traditional architecture in the towns of Tochni and Chirokitia, village of Askas and study of traditional villages in Greece.

Publications:

PETROPOULOU E.; PHILOKYPROU M.: 'Conservation Work Carried Out at the Monastery of Panayia tou Sindi (annex of the Kykkos Monastery)'. The Holy Kykkos Monastery in Relation to Archaeology and Art of the Byzantine and Post Byzantine Period (Nicosia 14-16 May 1998).

PETROPOULOU E., PHILOKYPROU M., KALLIRI E., CHRYSOCHOU N., PSEFTODIAKOS A.: 'Conservation of the Monastery of Panayia tou Sindi', Architects and Engineers, Nicosia, 1998, 15-20.

Contact:

Eleni Petropoulou

18, Vasilikon st. – Pera Chorion 2572, Nicosia (Cyprus)

Telephone: +357 22 525149

e-mail: elenipp@cytanet.com.cy