

Quentin Wilbaux

Doctorate in urban studies with the thesis 'Formation des espaces urbains de Marrakech' (Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales-EHESS, Paris, France, 2000)

DEA in urban studies (EHESS, Paris, France, 1994)

Architecture degree (ISA St Luc de Tournai, Belgium, 1981)

Current professional activity:

Architect and independent consultant in Belgium and Morocco

Related professional experience:

Manager and architect in the firm Marrakech-Médina SARL, devoted to the coordination of projects to renovate traditional dwellings in the medina of Marrakech, 1998-2003

Expert of the Fondation ONA on preliminary studies for the project to revalorise the kasbah in Tangier, the palace space and the embankment of the Strait, 2002.

Consultant to the UNESCO on the inventory of the riads in the medina of Marrakech, 1994

Conception of various projects to develop local infrastructures in Marrakech, 1986-1991

Architecture projects, particularly involving urban renovation and social dwellings in Belgium, 1982-2003

Courses with students in Haute Provence (1991, 1993, 1994), Marrakech (2001), Tournai (2000, 2001, 2002) and Salé (2003)

Publications:

Marrakech, le secret des maisons-jardins. ACR, Paris, 1999.

Marrakech et le sud marocain. HERME, Paris, 2001.

La médina de Marrakech, formation des espaces urbains d'une ancienne capitale du Maroc. L'HARMATAN, Paris, 2002.

Contact:

Quentin Wilbaux

60, derb Jemaa, Riyad Zitoun Kédim, Marrakech Médina 40000 (Morocco)

Telephone: +212 44 38 45 96

e-mail: qwilb@hotmail.com