

RESUME Ammar Khammash

Education : Two-year Post graduate studies in Ethnoarchaeology,
Institute of Archaeology and Anthropology, Yarmouk Univ.
Jordan. 1987- 1988
B. A. in Architecture, Univ. of Southwestern Louisiana, 1986
High school graduate of Terra Sancta Collage, Amman, Jordan, 1980.

Relevant Architectural works:

- Dar Al Tifl – Museum Rehabilitation. A project of joint venture with Jafar Toukan Partners providing consultancy for the renovation of the 1790s historic building.
- Nazareth Mosque 2001. Won an international competition to design a mosque in the heart of Nazareth (project claimed international fame for controversy due to proximity to the Church of the Annunciation) Among the competitors were Rasem Badran, Jafar Touqan, and Abd al Wahed al Wakeel.
- Renovation and design of new additions of Haret Jdudna in Madaba, a marketplace of crafts with restaurants and cafes, 1998
- Design of 80-room additional expansion of Taybet Zaman, traditional tourist village near Petra, 1997
- Renovation of the headquarters of King Abdulla (the first) Bin Al Hussain in Ma'an (part of the Ottoman Hijaz Railway Station) and design of the interior as a museum, 1995
- Renovation and interior design of River Jordan Design showrooms (an old house of Amman 1920s), 1995
- Renovation of " Darat al Funoun " (three houses of the 1930s now used as center for contemporary Arab art with exhibition spaces, studios and library as new addition. Owned and run by the Abdulhameed Shuman Foundation, Amman. 1992-95
- Renovation of the Jume'an House, Madaba. 1993
- Design and managing construction of shelter of Byzantine mosaic floors of church of the Virgin Mary in Madaba. 1993
- Design and managing construction of shelter of Byzantine mosaic floors of the Church of the Apostles, Madaba, 1991-93
- Design and construction of Village-type houses at courtyard of the Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Yarmouk University, Irbid. 1988
- Renovation of Ottoman house in Um Qais (Um Qais Museum). Work included interior and display design, 1988
- Renovation of German Excavation House, Um Qais 1988
- Renovation of the house of Hussain bin Ali in Aqaba with interior design to function as Aqaba Museum, 1987.